

The Siggins Miller Scholarship

(Established in 2002 and maintained by the income from a gift of $30,000 from Siggins Miller Consultants.)

1. The scholarship is awarded annually by Senate on the recommendation of the Medical Dean, Faculty of Medicine on advice from the Medical Student Support Team.
2. The scholarship is open to indigenous students who are in the first year of the MD program and is awarded on the basis of financial need in second semester.
3. An applicant must satisfy the Medical Dean, Faculty of Medicine that the applicant -
 - (a) has the academic ability to pursue and complete the chosen program at the University; and
 - (b) will be unable, without financial assistance, to continue the program or will suffer undue hardship in continuing the program.
4. The tenure of the scholarship is one year and will be awarded in the second semester of the recipient's first year of study in the MD program.
5. The value of the scholarship will be at least $2,000 but will be limited to the annual income of the fund.
6. In these rules, 'indigenous students' means students who are eligible for an allowance under the Commonwealth Aboriginal Study Assistance Scheme or who can otherwise demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Medical Dean that they are of Australian Aboriginal or Torres Strait Island descent, who identify as Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander, and are accepted as an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person in the community in which they live, or have lived.
