Ailsa Munro Physiotherapy Scholarship Rules

The scholarship was established in 2011 and is maintained by the income of a bequest from Ailsa Munro, a greatly respected, retired physiotherapist, who graduated with the first cohort of students from the physiotherapy program at The University of Queensland in 1941. The purpose of the scholarship is to memorialise Ailsa Munro by encouraging and supporting physiotherapy students who can demonstrate financial need. Students from a rural area of Australia are encouraged to apply.

Eligibility for award
An applicant is eligible for the scholarship, if the applicant -
(a) submits an application to the Head of School, by the closing date for applications; and
(b) is a domestic student within the meaning of the Fee Rules; and
(c) is enrolled in a relevant program; and
(d) has completed either –
   (i) the first 2 years of the Bachelor of Physiotherapy program; or
   (ii) the first year of the Master of Physiotherapy Studies program; and
(e) can provide documentary evidence of financial need.

Selection of award
The scholarship is awarded to the applicant showing greatest merit, as demonstrated by-
(a) evidence of financial need; and
(b) academic achievement in courses undertaken in the program; and
(c) strength of interest shown in physiotherapy; and
(d) personal qualities; and
(e) any other matter that the selection committee considers to be relevant to the applicant’s future success in the profession of physiotherapy.

The selection committee may decide to interview short-listed applicants.

In a year where there are eligible applicants from a rural area, preference will be given to the applicant from a rural area showing greatest merit.

Conditions for scholarship
The value of the scholarship is $6000 for one year.
The recipient may hold the scholarship for 1 year, subject to the recipient -
(a) achieving satisfactory academic progress; and
(b) continuing to be enrolled full-time in a relevant program.
If the recipient fails to satisfy this condition, the recipient must show cause to the Head, why the scholarship should not be cancelled.

The scholarship may be deferred only with approval of the Head.
