

The E.O.H. Handy Memorial Scholarship

(Founded in 1995 by a bequest under the will of Maisie Elizabeth Handy in memory of her late husband E.O.H. Handy.)

1. The object of the scholarship is to provide assistance to two indigenous people of Queensland to attend the University of Queensland.
2. The scholarship is awarded on the recommendation of the President of the Academic Board in consultation with the Director of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies Unit.
3. In making the recommendation, the President takes into account -
 - (a) the academic merit or technical excellence of the applicant;
 - (b) any other scholarship, bursary, award or benefit, whether governmental or otherwise, to which the applicant is entitled; and
 - (c) social and economic need.
4. The period of tenure of the scholarship is one year. Candidates may apply for an award in other years.
5. The value of the scholarships is $500 each.
6. In these rules "indigenous people" means students who are eligible for an allowance under the Commonwealth Aboriginal Study Assistance Scheme or who can otherwise demonstrate to the satisfaction of the President they:-
 - (a) are of Australian Aboriginal or Torres Strait Island descent;
 - (b) regard themselves as Aborigines or Torres Strait Islanders; and
 - (c) are so considered by the community in which they live.
