

The Venerable Archdeacon Edward Leo Hayes Adult Undergraduate Scholarship

(The scholarship was founded in 1967 by Senate in recognition of the lifelong work of the Venerable Archdeacon Edward Leo Hayes, Hon. MA, FRGSA, in the study and preservation of books and other materials in the field of Australian culture and of his action in donating to the University the entire collection which resulted from such work.)

1. The scholarship is awarded for the purpose of assisting a student of more mature years to pursue an undergraduate program at the University.
2. The scholarship is awarded by Senate on the recommendation of the President of the Academic Board.
3. The scholarship is open to applicants who –
 - (a) are not less than 25 years of age on the date the application must be lodged; and
 - (b) intend to enrol at the University in the first semester of the year of the award.
4. The scholarship is awarded to the applicant showing greatest merit as demonstrated by –
 - (a) financial position of the applicant and the difficulties which they may have overcome to enrol at the University; and
 - (b) academic achievement in secondary school or their program; and
 - (c) other evidence as may be deemed relevant.
5. Preference will be given to students who lived or worked in the area of the Darling Downs for a period of 12 months. If there is no such applicant, Senate may either defer the scholarship or award it to another person.
6. Applications must be lodged by the date and in the form set by the President of the Academic Board.
7. The scholarship is awarded as tenure becomes vacant.
8. The scholarship is tenable for the normal minimum duration of the recipient's program, subject to satisfactory academic progress and continued full-time enrolment.
9. The scholarship may be terminated if the President of the Academic Board is satisfied that the recipient is not diligently pursuing the program.
10. The value of the scholarship is $3,000 per year.
