

James and Everingham Bursary

(Founded in 1975 by a gift to the Queensland Agricultural College made by Dr N P Everingham in memory of Anne Elizabeth James and Stephan Nixon Everingham who died in a motor accident in 1973. Anne Elizabeth James was enrolled in the Associate Diploma of Applied Science (Food Technology) at the College in 1972/1973 and Stephan Everingham graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Applied Science (Rural Technology) in 1972. The bursary was formalised by Senate in 1999.)

1. Purpose

The purpose of the scholarship is to support students enrolled in programs relating to food technology or rural agriculture.

2. Definitions

In these rules –

Associate Dean (Academic) means the Associate Dean (Academic), Faculty of Science

Scholarship means the James and Everingham Bursary

3. Value and award of scholarship

- (1) The value of the scholarship is the annual income from the fund.
- (2) The scholarship is awarded annually by Senate on the recommendation of the Associate Dean (Academic).

4. Eligibility for award

An applicant is eligible for the award of a scholarship in a year if, in that year, the applicant:

- (a) Is enrolled in a program relating to food technology or rural agriculture; and
- (b) Applies for the scholarship by the closing date for applications.

5. Selection of award

- (1) The Associate Dean (Academic) must rank the eligible applicants in order of merit based on:
 - (a) Academic achievement;
 - (b) Financial need; and
 - (c) any other evidence that may be considered relevant by the Associate Dean (Academic) to future success by the student in the agriculture, agronomy or related industries
- (2) If the Associate Dean (Academic) is satisfied that at least one eligible applicant is of sufficient merit to warrant the award of the scholarship, the Associate Dean (Academic) must recommend that the scholarship be awarded to the applicant with the highest ranking.

6. Conditions for scholarship

- (1) The scholarship is tenable for one year, subject to the recipient's continued enrolment in the program for which the scholarship was awarded.
- (2) If a recipient fails to satisfy rule 6(1), the recipient must show cause to the Associate Dean (Academic), why the scholarship should not be cancelled.
