

Denis J. Murphy Memorial Scholarship

(Established in 1990 in memory of the late Denis Joseph Murphy, a past Reader in History at the University of Queensland and maintained by the income from a fund established by the donations of friends and colleagues.)

1. The Senate may award the scholarship each year on the recommendation of the Head, School of Historical and Philosophical Inquiry (the Head).
2. For the selection process each year, the Head must establish a selection committee comprising –
  - (a) the Head, or nominee, as chair of the committee; and
  - (b) 3 nominees of the Head, at least 2 of whom are members of the History Discipline.
3. The scholarship is open to graduates and final year Bachelor of Arts students intending to undertake research into the history of the labour movement in Australia.
4. The scholarship is awarded, at the discretion of the committee, on the basis of academic merit.
5. The scholarship may be held by the recipient for one year.
