

Medical Student Financial Aid Scholarships

(The Financial Aid Scholarships were established in 2020. The Scholarships aim to provide financial support to students studying in the Doctor of Medicine at the Faculty of Medicine.)

1. Purpose

The purpose of the Medical Student Financial Aid Scholarships is to support students who are in financial need and who are undertaking study in the Doctor of Medicine at The University of Queensland Medical School.

2. Definitions

In these rules-

Dean means the Dean, Medical School

Named Scholarship means a type of Scholarship offered under the auspices of The Financial Aid Scholarships, which is named in recognition of a donor or partnership. These Scholarships are identified in Addendum 1. They are administered in accordance with these rules as well as any additional requirements outlined in Addendum 1.

Satisfactory Academic Progress means meeting the requirements to remain enrolled in accordance with the University's Academic Progression Procedure and where relevant, the Doctor of Medicine Program Rules or Requirements.

Scholarship means a Medical Student Financial Aid Scholarship including a Named Scholarship as the context requires.

3. Award and value of Scholarships

- (1) A number of Scholarships will be awarded each year on recommendation of the Dean in accordance with these rules and any additional terms specified in Addendum 1 for Named Scholarships.
- (2) The value of each Scholarship is at least $4,500 for each year in which it is held, or as otherwise specified in Addendum 1 for Named Scholarships.
- (3) Scholarships are offered either as a Financial Aid Scholarship or as a specific Named Scholarship.

4. Eligibility for award

- (1) An applicant is eligible for a Scholarship, if the applicant –
 - (a) submits an application to the Dean, by the closing date for applications;
 - (b) is enrolled full-time in the Doctor of Medicine;
 - (c) can provide documentary evidence of financial hardship; and
 - (d) does not hold another Scholarship that the Dean considers similar.
- (2) To be eligible for a Named Scholarship, the student must also meet any additional eligibility requirements for that Scholarship set out in Addendum 1.

5. Selection of award

- (1) For the selection process, the Dean must establish a selection committee, comprising –
 - (a) the Dean, or nominee, as chair of the committee;
 - (b) at least two further members drawn from either professional or academic staff of the Faculty of Medicine; and
 - (c) the Associate Dean (Indigenous Engagement) (or nominee), with University staff comprising the majority.
- (2) The Scholarships will be awarded to applicants showing greatest merit, as demonstrated by –
 - (a) evidence of financial need;
 - (b) strength of personal statement demonstrating how the Scholarship will assist completion of the Doctor of Medicine;
 - (c) where applicable, any additional requirements for Named Scholarships as outlined in Addendum 1; and
 - (d) any other matter that the selection committee considers relevant to the applicant's future success in their study.

6. Conditions for Scholarships

- (1) A recipient may hold a Scholarship for one year or as otherwise specified in Addendum 1 for a Named Scholarship, subject to the recipient –
 - (a) continuing to be enrolled full-time in the program in which the recipient was enrolled when awarded the Scholarship;
 - (b) maintaining Satisfactory Academic Progress in each semester that the Scholarship is held; and
 - (c) not holding another Scholarship that the Dean considers to be similar.
- (2) Each recipient of a Named Scholarship must also comply with any additional conditions specified in Addendum 1 for that Scholarship.
- (3) If the recipient fails to satisfy rule 6(1) or 6(2), the student must show cause to the Show Cause Committee as to why the Scholarship should not be cancelled.

- (4) The Scholarship may be deferred or interrupted in exceptional circumstances as approved by the Dean for a maximum period of one year except where a contrary rule exists for a Named Scholarship in Addendum 1.

7. Termination of Scholarship

The University may terminate a Scholarship:

- (a) if the recipient does not show cause to the reasonable satisfaction of the University as provided for in rule 6(2); or
(b) if the student commits serious misconduct.

8. Named Scholarships - Interpretation

If there is any inconsistency between any specific requirement in Addendum 1 and rules (1) to (7) above, the specific rule in the Addendum will take priority when construing the relevant Named Scholarship.

Simon Siu Medicine Scholarship (A791)	Established in 2024 through a gift from Simon and Alice Siu, together with Alumni Friends of The University of Queensland under the Queensland Commitment Scholarship Match Initiative. The Scholarship honours Simon Siu, an esteemed Associate Professor of Surgery at Griffith University, who has dedicated over 45 years to the medical field, both as a senior consultant at Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital and as a researcher in colorectal cancer for over 25 years. His unwavering commitment to education is evident from his extensive teaching career, his 30 years as an Australian Medical Council's Clinical examiner and his editorship of a comprehensive 556-page book on the history of the Divisions of Surgery at Royal Brisbane Hospital. Recognising the financial challenges faced by medical students, Simon Siu, established the Simon Siu Medicine Scholarship at The University of Queensland, his alma mater from which he graduated in 1971. Motivated by a desire to "pay it forward" and fuelled by his own experiences, including his time in Bundaberg and his tenure as a senior visiting surgeon, he aims to alleviate the burden of costly medical education. His scholarship is a testament to his generosity and his hope to support future generations in navigating the evolving and often expensive landscape of medicine.
