

O'Brien Family Prize for Wind and Brass

(Established in 2018, the prize was initially supported by an annual gift from the Alumni Friends of The University of Queensland and is now maintained by the O'Brien family, in recognition of their long association with the School of Music.)

(a) Recommending authority

Head, School of Music.

(b) Eligibility

Any student enrolled in a University of Queensland program at the time of the annual competition.

(c) Basis for award

Most outstanding performance in wind or brass as determined at the annual competition held by the School of Music.

(d) Nature of prize

$1,000.