

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Education Scholarship

(The Scholarship was established in 2020 to assist Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students to achieve educational success through completing studies at UQ, and to support greater representation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students in higher education as stated in the UQ Reconciliation Action Plan. The Scholarship is supported by UQ fundraising initiatives and gifts from donors, and is open to further contributions)

1. Purpose

The purpose of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Education Scholarship is to encourage and support Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander students experiencing financial hardship to undertake studies at The University of Queensland.

2. Definitions

In these rules –

Approved Program means any coursework program at The University of Queensland except as may be otherwise specified in the Addenda for Named Scholarships.

Australian Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander person means a person who can provide evidence of their Australian Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander status. Confirmation of Australian Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander status from a registered community corporation is required. Where exceptional circumstances apply, statutory declarations and other forms of documentation may be considered. Original or certified copies of supporting documentation must be provided.

Named Scholarship means a type of scholarship offered under the auspices of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Education Scholarship, which is named in recognition of a donor or partnership. These Scholarships are identified in the Addenda. They are administered in accordance with these rules as well as any additional requirements outlined in the Addenda.

DVC(IE) means Deputy-Vice-Chancellor (Indigenous Engagement).

Satisfactory Academic Progress means meeting the requirements to remain enrolled under the University's Academic Progression Procedures.

Scholarship means the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Education Scholarship, including Named Scholarships.

3. Award and value of the Scholarship

- (1) The number of Scholarships awarded in a calendar year, and the value of each Scholarship, will be determined by the DVC(IE) at the commencement of each year of award, except as may be otherwise specified in the Addenda for Named Scholarships.
- (2) Where an applicant is awarded a Scholarship and is studying part-time, the DVC(IE) may require the Scholarship be awarded at a reduced rate, unless otherwise specified in the Addenda for Named Scholarships.
- (3) Each Scholarship will be tenable for a maximum period of one year, except as may be otherwise specified in the Addenda for Named Scholarships.

4. Eligibility for award

- (1) An applicant is eligible for the award of a Scholarship if the applicant –
 - (a) can demonstrate financial hardship;
 - (b) submits an application to the DVC(IE) by the closing date for applications;
 - (c) is an Australian Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander person; and
 - (d) is enrolled in an Approved Program in the semester or trimester of the award.
- (2) To be eligible for a Named Scholarship, the student must also meet any additional eligibility requirements for that scholarship set out in the Addenda.

5. Selection of award

- (1) For the selection process, the DVC(IE) must establish a selection committee, comprising –
 - (a) the DVC(IE), or nominee, as chair of the committee;
 - (b) at least two further members drawn from either professional or academic UQ staff, as nominated by the chair; and
 - (c) with respect to Named Scholarships, any additional members outlined in the Addenda.
- (2) The Scholarship will be awarded on the basis of the following criteria –
 - (a) demonstrated financial hardship;
 - (b) with respect to Named Scholarships, any additional requirements outlined in the Addenda;
 - (c) personal qualities, including leadership potential;
 - (d) academic ability; and
 - (e) any other matter which may be deemed relevant to the applicant's future academic success.
- (3) The selection committee may interview shortlisted candidates.

- (4) Where there are multiple Scholarships to award, and some or all are of a different value, the selection committee will award the highest value Scholarships to the most meritorious applicants (as determined under Rule 5(2) above), the next highest value Scholarships to the next most meritorious applicants, and so on until all available Scholarships have been awarded.

6. Conditions for Scholarship

- (1) The recipient may hold the Scholarship for up to one year, except as may be otherwise specified in the Addenda for Named Scholarships. The Scholarship will be paid in equal semester or trimester instalments (as applicable), subject to the recipient –
- (a) maintaining at least the same level of enrolment (i.e., full time or part time) in an Approved Program that the recipient had at the time of their application; and
 - (b) maintaining Satisfactory Academic Progress in each semester or trimester that the Scholarship is held.
- (2) Each recipient of a Named Scholarship must also comply with any additional conditions specified in the Addenda for that scholarship.
- (3) If the recipient fails to satisfy rule 6(1) or 6(2) the recipient must show cause to the DVC(IE) why the Scholarship should not be cancelled (unless otherwise specified in the Addenda). Where a recipient fails to satisfy rule 6(1)(a), the DVC(IE) may require the Scholarship value to be reduced.
- (4) The recipient may apply to the DVC(IE) to interrupt or defer the Scholarship for a maximum duration of 12 months (unless otherwise specified in the Addenda).

7. Termination of Scholarship

The University may terminate the Scholarship –

- (a) if the recipient does not show cause to the reasonable satisfaction of the University as provided for in rule 6(3);
- (b) if the recipient defers or interrupts their study without approval; or
- (c) if the recipient commits misconduct.

8. Named Scholarships - Interpretation

If there is any inconsistency between any specific requirement in the Addenda and rules (1) to (7) above, the specific rule in the Addenda will take priority when construing the relevant Named Scholarship.
