

Master of Pharmaceutical Industry Practice International Student Scholarship

1. Eligibility

Students are eligible to apply for the Master of Pharmaceutical Industry Practice international student scholarship if they:

- a) are an international student; and
- b) undertake their studies on a full-time basis commencing in either semester one or two; and
- c) have received an unconditional offer for the program; or
- d) have already confirmed their place in the program; and
- e) do not hold another scholarship.

2. Selection

The scholarship is competitive and awarded by the selection committee on the basis of:

- a) academic performance; and
- b) personal statement, experience and reference letter.

Students will be notified by email if they have been offered a scholarship, including a due date by which they must accept their scholarship offer.

Requests for an extension to the scholarship offer due date must be submitted in writing. Requests will be considered by the selection committee on a case-by-case basis.

3. Value and duration of the scholarship

The scholarship is a one-off tuition fee reduction payment between $5,000 - $10,000. The final amount awarded will be at the discretion of the selection committee and paid after census in the first semester of studies.
