Terms and Conditions

Eligibility

To be eligible to apply for the Destination Australia Scholarship at UQ, an applicant must:

- Satisfactorily complete the application process as outlined below (see 'How to Apply'), and
- ^ Be able to be classified as an international student in Australia, and
- ^ Maintain a student visa for the duration of the scholarship in order to ensure protection under the Education Services for Overseas Students \(ESOS\) Act 2000, and
- * Commence full-time enrolment as a new student in an eligible degree program (see Appendix) at the UQ Gatton campus in 2025 (i.e. be new to UQ and/or be new to the eligible program of study), and
- By the scholarship closing date, submit all requested documentation to meet conditions associated with an offer from UQ for an eligible program (see Appendix), and
- # Maintain ongoing residency in a regional area of Australia for the duration of the degree/scholarship, as defined by the Australian Statistical Geography Standard Remoteness Structure \(2016\) from the Australian Bureau of Statistics (refer to the Health Workforce Locator map (ASGS Remoteness Areas 2016)), and
- # Before payment of the scholarship, provide evidence of their residential address in the regional area of Australia each Semester (before the academic census date) through a rental agreement,

Destination Australia – an Australian Government initiative

utility bill, statutory declaration or other evidence individually agreed upon to confirm their residence.

Please note:

1. # Under the Destination Australia Guidelines, where a course includes study outside a regional area (for example, for a required clinical placement), residency away from the regional area is permitted for:
 - no more than one study period (not exceeding 6 months) per qualification where the qualification is longer than 2 years, or
 - 25% of the qualification length where the qualification is 2 years or shorter, and
 - where the requirements of a compulsory placement exceed the permitted study period away from a regional area, prior approval must be sought from the UQ Sponsored Students Unit (destination.australia@uq.edu.au). Continued eligibility for the Destination Australia scholarship will need to be re-assessed by The University of Queensland and the Department of Education.
2. The government funding received for the scholarship stipulates that for the duration of the scholarship students must maintain ongoing residency in a regional area of Australia as classified by the Australian Statistical Geography Standard Remoteness Structure \(2016\) – refer to the Health Workforce Locator map (ASGS Remoteness Areas 2016).

Ineligibility

Applicants will be considered ineligible for the Destination Australia Scholarship at UQ if they:

- Have not completed the scholarship application process as outlined below (see 'How to Apply').
- Have not lodged an official UQ application for entry into one of the eligible programs fully delivered at the UQ Gatton campus by the scholarship closing date.
- Have already commenced and completed at least one semester of study at UQ (in either an eligible or ineligible degree program), unless they seek a program change to commence a new course of study in an eligible program in 2025.
 - Note:
 - UQ alumni commencing an eligible degree program in a different level of study in 2025 (i.e. Masters after a Bachelors) are eligible to apply.
 - Existing UQ students (in an ineligible program) who seek a program change to commence a new course of study in an eligible program in 2025 are eligible to apply.
- Are enrolled in a program not listed on the list of eligible programs fully delivered at the UQ Gatton campus (see Appendix).
- Simultaneously hold another scholarship from another School, Faculty or unit for study at UQ. If an applicant holds or has been offered another scholarship, the applicant should choose which to retain.
- # Live outside of a regional area, as defined by the Australian Statistical Geography Standard Remoteness Structure \(2016\) from the Australian Bureau of Statistics, at any stage during their degree program or scholarship.
- Defer, interrupt, withdraw or cancel their studies or enrolment in an eligible program fully delivered at the UQ Gatton campus. The scholarship cannot be deferred.

Destination Australia – an Australian Government initiative

- Are a domestic student:
 - Destination Australia scholarships may be available for domestic students, on a separate application form – please see the UQ Destination Australia Scholarship \(Domestic Students\) webpage.

How to Apply

1. Lodge an official UQ application for entry into one of the eligible postgraduate programs fully delivered at the UQ Gatton campus (see Appendix), directly to The University of Queensland or through an approved UQ education agent.

Apply online: <https://study.uq.edu.au/admissions> or via:

UQ International Admissions
Level 2, JD Story Building
The University of Queensland
Brisbane, Queensland, 4072 Australia
Email: applicationstatus@uq.edu.au

Note: Lodging an application requires you to pay UQ's application fee for international students.

2. Receive a UQ Student ID Number and an offer. If your offer is a conditional or package offer you must meet all conditions by the scholarship closing date. The offer does not need to be accepted by the scholarship closing date.
3. Complete and submit the UQ Destination Australia online application form \(International Students\). As part of the online application, applicants must submit a personal statement (300 words maximum), outlining:
 - Why are you interested studying in a regional area in Australia?
 - How have you contributed to your local community, and how do you plan to enrich the UQ Gatton community?
 - What influenced and motivated you to choose your intended study program?
4. Application Deadline: UQ must receive your program and scholarship applications by the scholarship closing date at 12:00pm (noon) Australian Eastern Standard Time (AEST):
 - 20 January 2025 for a Semester 1 (February) commencement

Note: No late scholarship applications will be considered.

Selection Process

Following each closing date, applications will be considered through the following process:

- A selection panel chaired by the Faculty of Science Associate Dean (Academic) (or nominee) will select scholarship recipients.
- Selection will be based on the Selection Criteria shown below.
- Wherever possible, UQ will notify applicants of the outcome of their application within four (4) weeks of the scholarship closing date. UQ reserves the right to extend the scholarship outcome notification period.
- Students will be notified by email if they have been awarded a scholarship and will have until the deadline specified in the email to accept. Students who do not accept by the due date will not be awarded the scholarship and will not be automatically considered for subsequent scholarship offer rounds.
- The decision of the Associate Dean (Academic) (or nominee) is final, and no further correspondence will be entered into.

Please note:

- The scholarship cannot be deferred.
- UQ reserves the right to alter, update or amend the Terms and Conditions of the scholarship based upon:
 - changes to the Destination Australia program grant agreement, or
 - academic or administrative changes to the eligible UQ program/s of study, or
 - advice from the Department of Education, and/or the Destination Australia Community Grants Hub unit, or
 - other unforeseen or exceptional circumstances.
- UQ reserves the right not to award the scholarship in a given year, following appropriate negotiations with and approvals from the Department of Education, and/or the Destination Australia Community Grants Hub unit.

Selection Criteria

UQ will select scholarship recipients based on:

- Eligibility as outlined above and in the Department of Education's Destination Australia Guidelines
- Academic performance (based on academic credentials submitted as part of UQ program application).
- Response to personal statement in the online application form.
- UQ values diversity and inclusion and encourages applications from those who bring diversity to the university. The selection panel may take these values into account.

Obligations of Scholarship Recipients

Each scholarship winner must, for the duration of their degree and/or their scholarship:

- Commence study in an eligible program (see Appendix) in the semester indicated in their UQ offer letter.
- Maintain continuous full-time enrolment via Internal study mode (in-person at the UQ Gatton campus) in the approved study program for which this scholarship has been offered.
- Maintain satisfactory academic progress as defined by the UQ Academic Progression Procedure throughout their approved UQ study program.
- Diligently and to the best of their ability apply themselves in making the best possible attempt to successfully complete the program of study.
- If the recipient wishes to change their program of study or alter their full-time study load, or if they wish to defer, interrupt or withdraw from their approved UQ study program at any stage during their degree program or the scholarship period, they must first notify the UQ Sponsored Students Unit (destination.australia@uq.edu.au).
- UQ will reassess the student's eligibility to continue receiving the scholarship in future semesters according to the Scholarship Terms and Conditions and the Department of Education's Destination Australia Guidelines.
- # Maintain residency in a regional area of Australia, as defined by the Australian Statistical Geography Standard Remoteness Structure \(2016\) from the Australian Bureau of Statistics (refer to the Health Workforce Locator map (ASGS Remoteness Areas 2016), for the duration of the program and/or scholarship.
- # Before payment of the scholarship, provide evidence of their residential address in the regional area of Australia each Semester (before the academic census date) through a rental agreement, utility bill, statutory declaration or other evidence individually agreed upon to confirm their residence.
- ^ Maintain a student visa for the duration of the scholarship.
- ^ If changing Australian visa/immigration status after commencing the degree, eligibility to continue receiving the scholarship will be reassessed.
- Permit UQ to share their name and personal information with the Department of Education, for the purpose of reporting to the Department of Education on the outcomes of the Destination Australia program.
- Provide a testimonial and/or be interviewed for a feature profile and press release for the purposes of print, radio and electronic publicity, accompanied by an appropriate photograph, and/or participate in a video project promoting Destination Australia and/or study at the UQ Gatton campus if requested by The University of Queensland and/or the Australian Government's Department of Education.
- Upon graduation from their UQ degree program for which the scholarship has been awarded, complete a graduate destination survey as issued by The University of Queensland for the purpose of reporting to the Department of Education on the outcomes of the Destination Australia program, and/or other promotional purposes as determined by The University of Queensland and/or the Australian Government's Department of Education.

Payment of Scholarship

- Payment of the scholarship is conditional on recipients meeting the obligations outlined above as at each scheduled payment date (see Destination Australia Scholarship Payment Schedule below).
- UQ will pay into each recipient's nominated Australian bank account within 20 business days of the scheduled payment date in the first semester of study.
- If at any time the student defers, interrupts or withdraws from their approved UQ study program (either before or after the academic census date), and they are found to no longer meet the eligibility criteria set forth in these Terms and Conditions, their Destination Australia scholarship may be terminated, and any future scholarship instalments discontinued.

Destination Australia Scholarship Payment Schedule

- UQ will pay the scholarship in AUD $7,500 disbursements per semester, after the academic census date in the first Semester/Research Quarter of study, following confirmation that the student is eligible and fulfils all obligations (as per the Academic Calendar):
 - 31 March for Semester 1 commencements
 - 31 August for Semester 2 commencements
- The second instalment (AUD $7,500) will be paid to the student no later than six (6) months from the payment of the first instalment, after confirming the student remains eligible, fulfils all obligations and is making satisfactory academic progress.
- Where a scholarship is offered over multiple years, UQ will pay subsequent scholarship disbursements in six-monthly instalments (AUD $7,500 each semester), after confirming the student remains eligible, fulfils all obligations and is making satisfactory academic progress (as per the Academic Calendar).

Termination of Scholarship

The University will terminate the scholarship:

- if the recipient does not enrol in an eligible program in the proposed semester of commencement; or
- if the recipient fails to maintain full-time enrolment (6 to 8-unit study load per semester) via Internal study mode (at the UQ Gatton campus) throughout their approved study program; or
- if the recipient defers, interrupts or withdraws from their approved UQ study program at any stage during the scholarship period; or
- if the student commits serious misconduct; or
- if the student fails a course in their first semester; or
- if the student fails to fulfil their obligations as a scholarship recipient as defined in this document; or
- if the student fails to achieve satisfactory academic progress throughout their approved UQ study program as per the UQ Academic Progression Procedure.

Appeals against termination of scholarship

Appeals regarding the termination of the scholarship will be considered by the Associate Dean (Academic), Faculty of Science (or nominee) and/or the Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Global Partnerships) (or nominee), who may consider this and seek approval from the Department of Education.
