

The Mathematics Honours Prize for Women in Algebra and Number Theory

(Established in 2024 by a generous donor to support meritorious woman mathematics students completing their undergraduate program with the intention of enrolling in honours with a focus on algebra and number theory).

(a) Recommending authority

Head of School, School of Mathematics and Physics

(b) Eligibility

The prize is open to third year women mathematics students completing an undergraduate program with the intention of enrolling in an honours program related to algebra and number theory.

(c) Basis for award

Greatest proficiency in mathematics courses in the year of the award and personal statement outlining their honours project.

(d) Nature of prize

The value of the prize is $3,000