

Lendlease Women in Civil Engineering Scholarship

(Established in 2024 and maintained by an annual gift from Lendlease.)

1. Purpose

The purpose of the Scholarship is to encourage and support meritorious, female third-year students studying Civil Engineering at The University of Queensland.

2. Definitions

In these rules –

Approved Program means Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) program or Bachelor of Engineering (Honours)/Master of Engineering program, or a Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) dual program.

Associate Dean means the Associate Dean (Academic), Faculty of Engineering, Architecture, and Information Technology.

Continuing Student means a student who was enrolled in an Approved Program in the Relevant Field in a previous semester.

Head means Head of School, School of Civil Engineering.

Relevant Field means any field of engineering within the civil engineering discipline.

Scholarship means Lendlease Women in Engineering Scholarship.

Semester GPA means the result of applying the following formula to all courses undertaken in a semester by a student for credit towards an Approved Program —

$$\frac{\Sigma(GP)}{\Sigma(P)}$$

where G = the result in a course; and
P = the unit value of that course.

If a student is enrolled in a course but gets no result, G=0.

3. Award and Selection Committee

- (1) One Scholarship will be awarded in a year in accordance with these rules.
- (2) The value of each Scholarship will be $15,000 for each year that it is held.
- (3) The maximum duration of each Scholarship is one year.
- (4) The Scholarship will be awarded on recommendation from the Head after consultation with a selection committee, comprising –
 - (a) the Head (or nominee);
 - (b) at least one member of the University's academic staff who is currently teaching in the Relevant Field; and
 - (c) up to one representative from Lendlease, with University staff comprising the majority.

4. Eligibility and Award Criteria

- (1) An applicant is eligible for the Scholarship, if the applicant –
