

International House Global Residency Scholarship

(Established in 2024 and maintained by an annual gift from International House at The University of Queensland. Since its founding in 1965, International House at the University of Queensland has played a pivotal role in creating a welcoming, safe and supportive environment for both domestic and international UQ students.)

1. Purpose

The purpose of the Scholarship is to support meritorious international students residing at International House by reducing the costs associated with studying.

2. Definitions

In these rules –

Approved Program means any program at The University of Queensland.

Satisfactory Academic Progress means meeting the requirements to remain enrolled in accordance with the University's Academic Progression Procedure.

Scholarship means the International House Global Residency Scholarship.

3. Award and Selection Committee

- (1) One Scholarship will be awarded in a year in accordance with these rules.
- (2) The value of the Scholarship is $7,000 for each year that it is held.
- (3) The maximum duration of each Scholarship is four years.
- (4) The Scholarship will be awarded on recommendation from the Academic Registrar (or nominee) after consultation with the CEO/Director of International House (or nominee).
- (5) Despite rule 3(3), the Scholarship may be awarded for a period of less than four years if determined necessary by the Academic Registrar having regard to vacancy for the Scholarship and available donor funding.

4. Eligibility and Award Criteria

- (1) An applicant is eligible for a Scholarship, if the applicant –
  - (a) submits an application to the Academic Registrar, by the closing date for applications;
  - (b) is an international student in accordance with the University's Fee Policy in the year of the award;
  - (c) is enrolled full-time in an Approved Program in the year of the award; and
  - (d) is a resident at International House in the year of the award.
- (2) The Scholarship is awarded to the applicant showing the greatest merit based on –
  - (a) academic achievement; and
  - (b) any other matter that the selection committee considers to be relevant to the applicant's future success in their studies.

5. Conditions for Award

- (1) The recipient may hold the Scholarship for its awarded duration, subject to the recipient –
  - (a) continuing to be enrolled full-time in an Approved Program;
  - (b) maintaining Satisfactory Academic Progress; and
  - (c) continuing to be a resident at International House.
- (2) If the recipient fails to satisfy rule 5(1), the recipient must show cause to the Academic Registrar why the Scholarship should not be terminated. The Academic Registrar may consult with the relevant head of International House.

6. Deferral and Interruption of Award

The Scholarship cannot be deferred or interrupted.

7. Termination of Award

The University may terminate a Scholarship if the recipient –

- (a) does not show cause to the reasonable satisfaction of the University as provided for in rule 5(2); or
- (b) defers or interrupts their study; or
- (c) commits misconduct.
