D.P. SINGHAL VISITING SCHOLARSHIP

(Established in 1995 from a fund that includes a bequest of $25,000 to the University under the will of Professor D.P. Singhal, who taught Indian History at the University for 25 years, and contributions from friends and colleagues of Professor Singhal.)

1. The object of the Scholarship is to enable a scholar usually resident in India to attend the University for a short period to be determined by the Head of the School of Historical and Philosophical Inquiry in order to further the scholar’s research interests.

2. The Scholarship will be awarded every 3 years by the Senate on the recommendation of the Head School of Historical and Philosophical Inquiry.

3. The amount of the Scholarship will not exceed the income of the fund for the three year period.